

Certificate of CE Compliance

All MidOpt products are CE compliant. The CE mark is obligatory for electronics that MidOpt will import directly into the European Union, and indicates that MidOpt's products comply with the relevant European 'New Approach' product safety Directives.

While all MidOpt products are CE compliant, this does not impact our filters, optical materials and all other products that do not incorporate electronic components.